THE 1936 CRIMSON

A CINEMATIC
AND SYSTEMATIC RECORD OF
THE SCHOOL
YEAR 1935-36
AT GOSHEN
HIGH SCHOOL
GOSHEN, INDIANA
AS FILMED
BY THE SENIORS

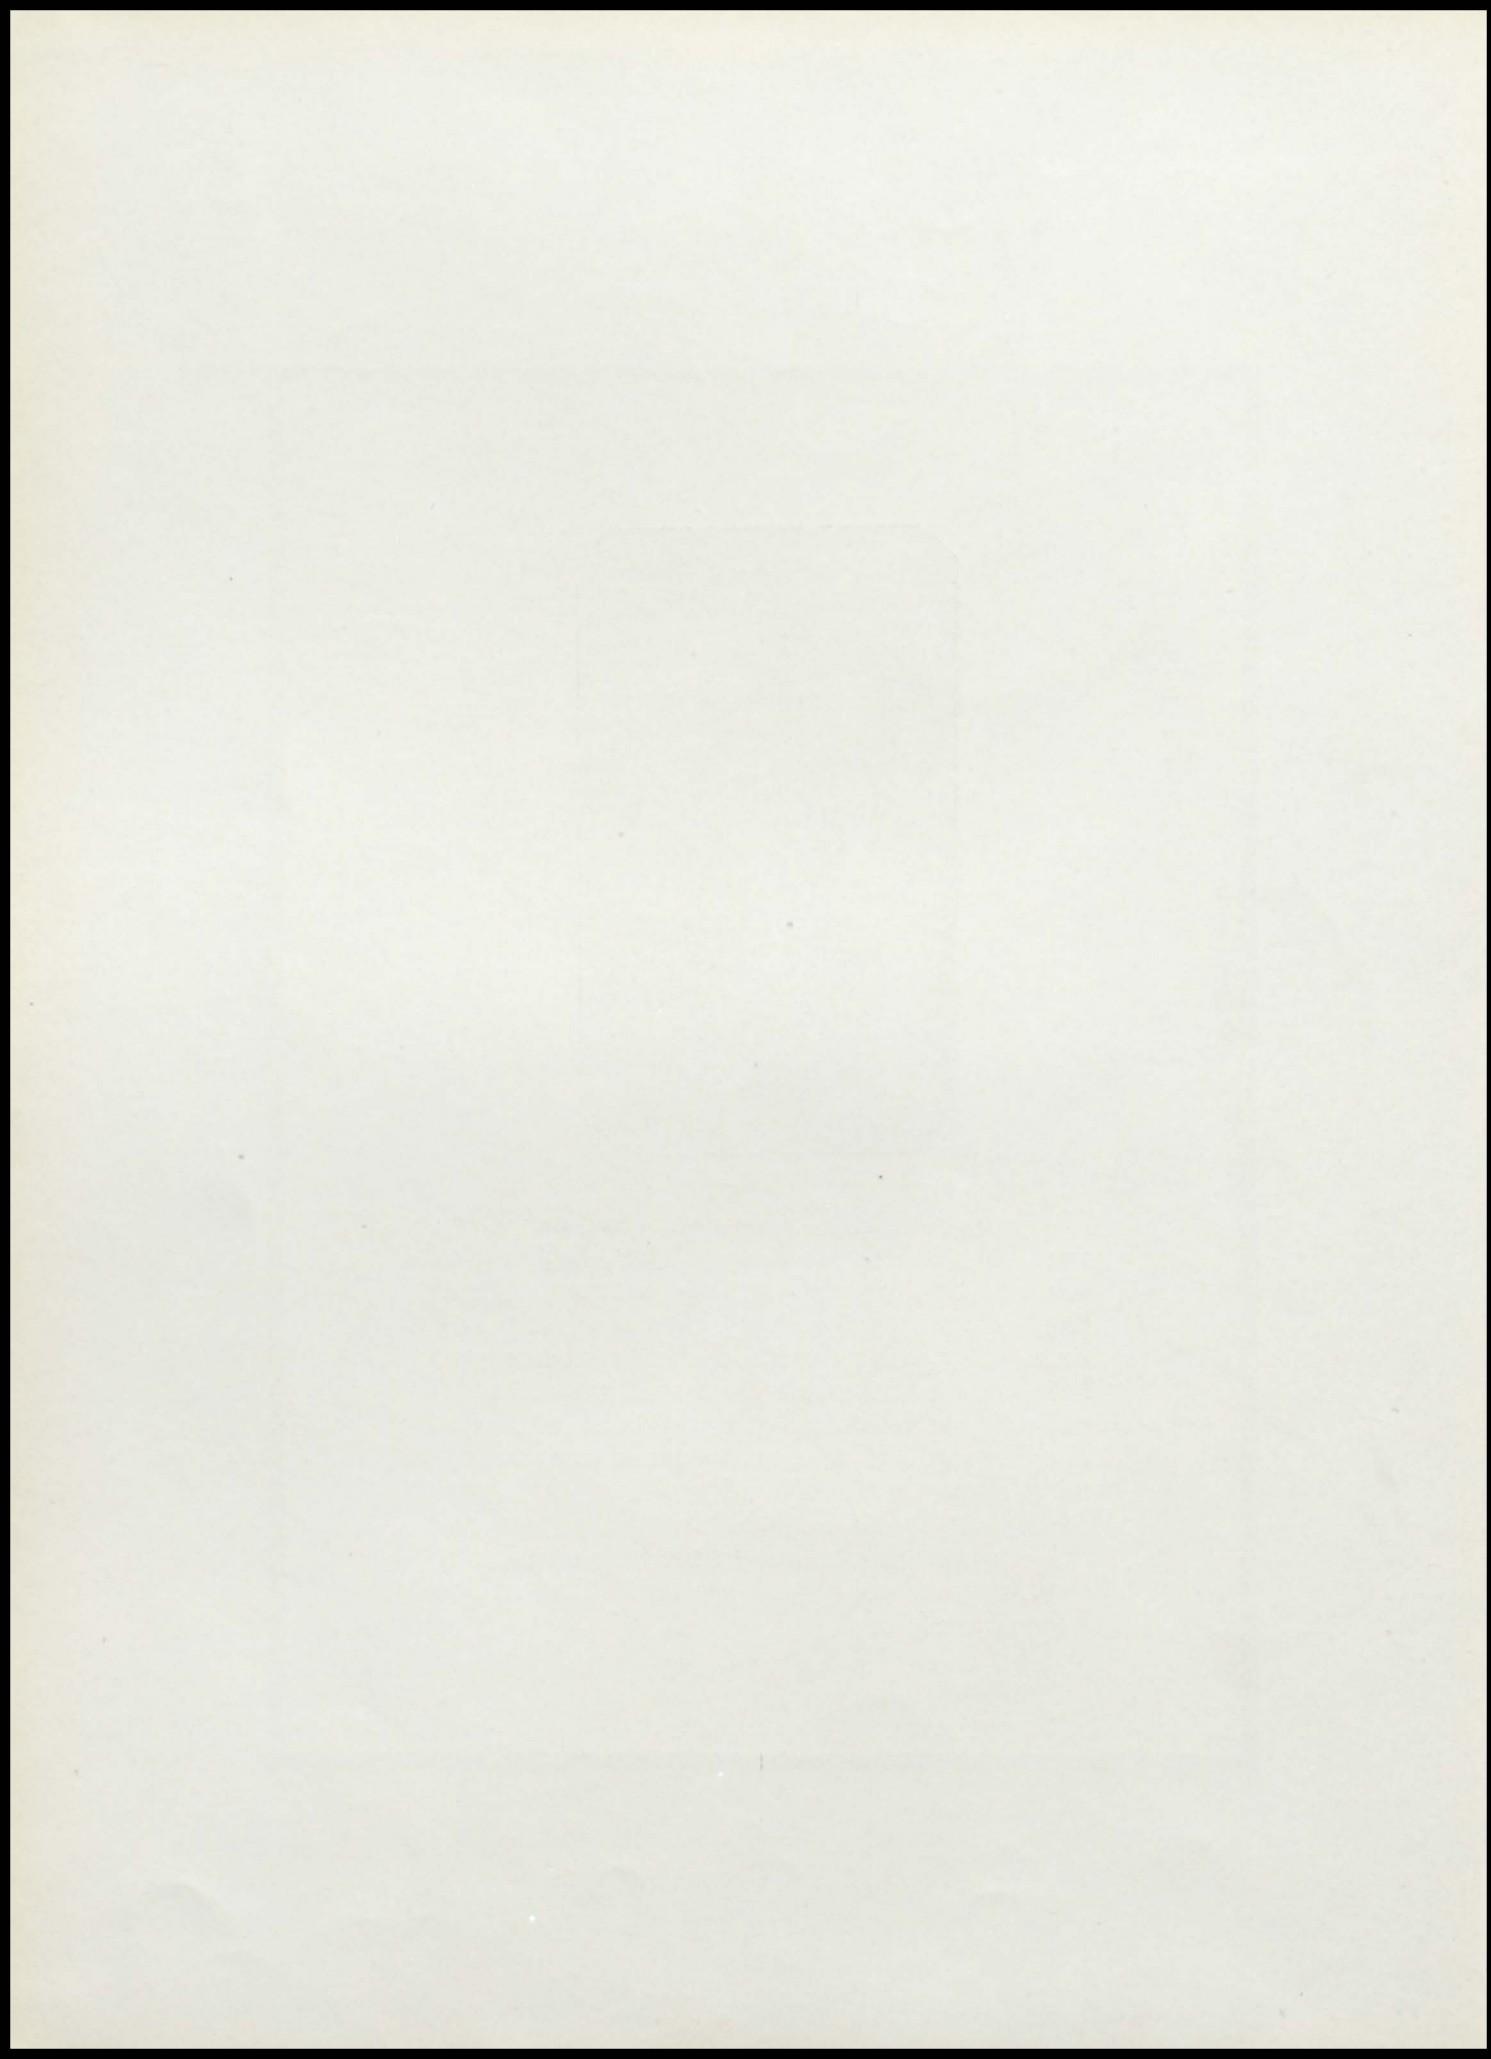

PROLOGUE

This cinema recording will preserve for us
the happy reminiscences of the joyful events
of our school life.

John William Foreman in his sixteen years as Superintendent of the Goshen city schools, became one of the outstanding and beloved men of the city. He gave freely and unselfishly of his time and energy, not only to the schools but to all civic and public enterprises. He had many friends and admirers, and his sudden passing, after so brief an illness, came as a profound shock to the entire community. His death brought a loss not only to the schools, but to the city and is one that will not soon be forgotten. Goshen has lost a dear friend.

DIRECTORS

SCHOOL BOARD

J. W. FOREMAN	Superintendent
ALBERT A. RIETH	President
F. S. EBERSOLE	Treasurer
W. D. CHAMPION	Secretary

Mr. Foreman, our able superintendent, manages our Goshen City Schools wisely and efficiently. However, there is another governing body that does a great part of the work—the school board. We, of Goshen, are particularly fortunate in having such fine men on our board. We wish to express our deepest appreciation to Mr. Foreman and the board for the many favors bestowed upon us in our school system.

PRINCIPAL O. L. WALTER

Mr. Walter, principal of Goshen High School, controls and directs our high school activities very efficiently. He schedules many programs for our benefit and is interested in pupils participating in extra-curricular activities. At all times, he is vitally concerned with the welfare of the pupils.

CLAUDE FRENCH

APPRECIATION

We, the class of 1936, express our sincerest appreciation to our sponsors, Miss Graham, who has so ably directed us for the past four years, and to our new sponsor, Mr. French, who has taken the place of our former sponsor, Mr. Brown.

FEATURE PLAYERS

Three years ago, we, the class of '37, entered G. H. S. anticipating an exciting adventure. However, as we glanced at our Latin and algebra books we were disillusioned, but as we progressed through the year we discovered that it was not so bad after all. The class was entrusted to the leadership of president, Warren Bowman; vice-president, Floyd Higgins; secretary, Joe Rensberger; treasurer, Imogene Culp; sergeants-at-arms, Fred Cunningham and Lamar Gonderman. We were sponsored by Miss Stutz and Mr. Ulery.

During our sophomore year we began to feel of some importance, instead of mere recruits. Our president that year was Anna Ruth Culp; vice-president, Floyd Higgins; secretary, Willadene Smith; treasurer, Donna Stoller; sergeants-at-arms, Harold Raifsnyder and Ernest Sample.

After two years of hard labor we succeeded in becoming dignified juniors, upper classmen. Class officers were: president, Lamar Gonderman; vice-president, Rosemary Sheridan; secretary, Joan Van Horn; treasurer, Janice Wagner; sergeants-at-arms, Victor Stine and Ernest Sample.

Mr. Ulery was not with us our junior year, having moved to Washington; and the class chose Mr. Shanklin to take his place.

Don Peterson, our cheer-leader, has done excellent work.

Our athletic stars are: in football, Ralph Juday, Carl Warstler, Fred Cunningham and Harold Raifsnyder. In basketball: Ernest Sample, Dan Chiddister, Carl Warstler, and James McConnell.

Members of the class who have received scholarship sweaters are: Tyson Carpenter, Eunice Weaver, Anna Ruth Culp.

The Junior Class play, "Growing Pains", was very successful. The cast was as follows: Don Peterson, Mary Jane Blough, Eugene Bagwell, Imogene Culp, Victor Stine, Anna Ruth Culp, Lamar Gonderman, Betty Jean Kercher, Dean Grant, Dorothy Becker, Dan Parker, Vera Leist, Leonard Yoder, Lois Peffley, Dorothy Herman, Floyd Higgins, Alverda Price.

Having thoroughly enjoyed high school so far, we are looking eagerly forward to our senior year.

SUPPORTING ROLES

We, the class of 1938, started our career in G. H. S. under the sponsorship of Miss Beaman and Mr. Beck. We chose for our class officers Clifford Rensberger, president; Donald Yoder, vice-president; Esther Leer, secretary; Tom Yoder, treasurer; Henry Clason and Eugene Atz, sergeants-at-arms. Sam Spohn was elected freshman cheer-leader.

The sophomore class began this year in a very energetic manner by electing George Williams president; James Simpson, vice-president; Margaret Sunthimer, secretary; Richard Weaver, treasurer; Walter Krumweide and Edward Delcamp, sergeants-at-arms.

In our school activities, the sophomore class has members of which it is especially proud. Henry Clason, dashing basketball star of the Elkhart game, engages regularly in scalping enemy basketeers. Junior Herring, James Miltenberger, George Talford and Clifford Wert are among our outstanding athletes.

We are really a very versatile class, being well represented in the band, orchestra and glee clubs.

We were proud to discover after the mid-term exams that Genevieve Warner, a member of our class, led the school in scholarship, having Richard Weaver as a close follow-up.

The sophomore class, we feel, is living up to the traditions of G. H. S. and is pulling ahead of our esteemed upper classmen.

E X T R A S

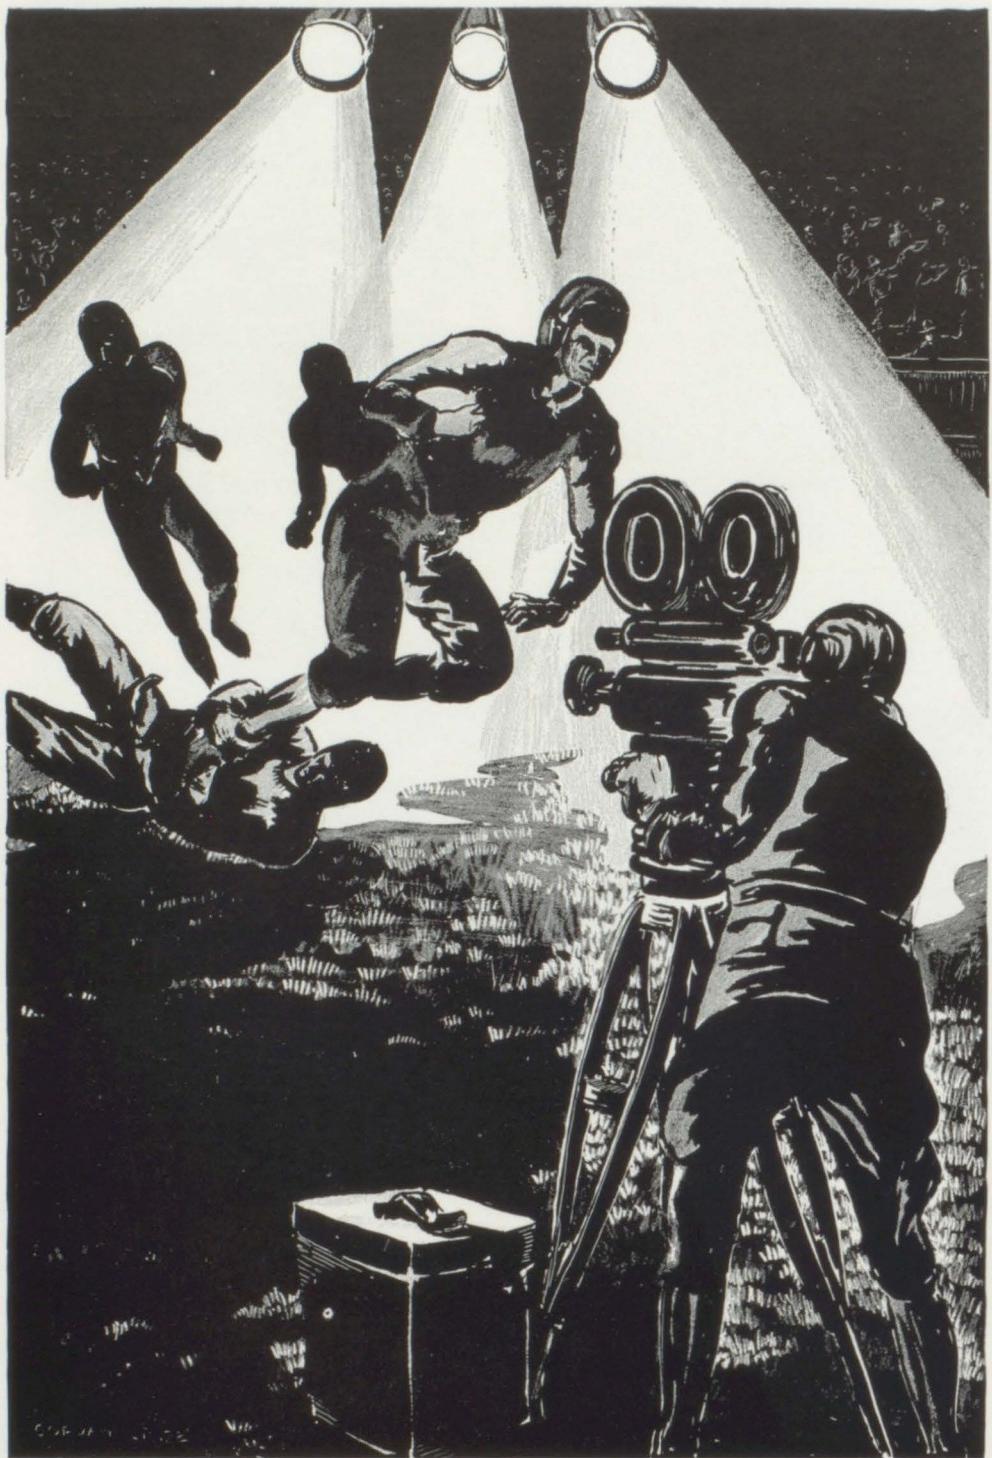

The high school career of the class of '39 began last fall. Last fall we were just "Frosh" to our worthy upper classmen, but now, at the end of our first year, we have finally succeeded in mastering the routine of high school life.

To help our sponsors, Miss Smith and Mr. Smith, guide our class through freshman year we elected the following officers: president, Richard Rieth; vice-president, Sonia Mae Love; secretary, Joan Rummel; treasurer, Annette Snoke; sergeants-at-arms, Maxine Juday and Ray Miller; cheer-leader, Betty Grant.

The freshmen were active in the band, orchestra, football, basketball, Sunshine and G. A. A.

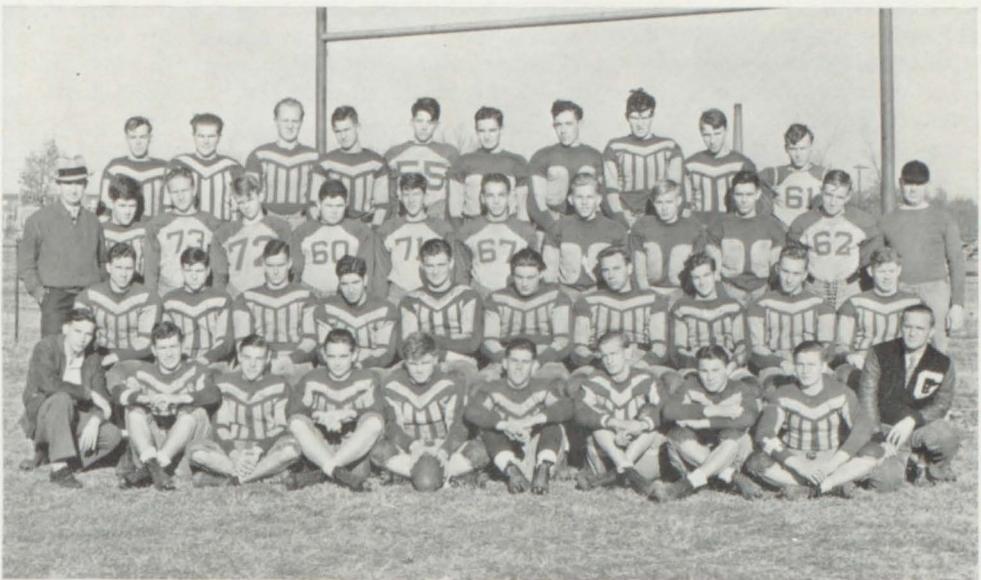

Charles Bryner led the class in scholastic standing the first semester, with an average of 6.00. Seven members of the class had averages of 5.75, Mary Ellen Amos, Margaret Detwiler, Barbara Esch, Jean Harter, Kenneth Lehman, Virginia McClish, and Annette Snoke. The Honor Roll boasted 56 freshmen names, and 26 on the 4E list, which speaks well for the class of '39.

PLYMOUTH 0; GOSHEN 26

After three weeks of practice, the Red Menace, coached by Herman Byers and the new assistant, Loren Evans, opened the 1935 season with a 26 to 0 victory over Plymouth's Pilgrims. The team built around five veterans, L. Hoke, Phend, Winters, Stealy, and B. Hoke, proved superior in all departments of play. From the time Dick Stealy went 40 yards to a touchdown on the opening play until nearly the whole second team was in, Goshen scored at will.

NORTH SIDE OF FORT WAYNE 0; GOSHEN 7

With hopes rather bright for the future, Goshen met a band of Redskins from Fort Wayne, who were highly confident of scalping our Red Menace. After battling to a scoreless tie the first half the Byers coached Braves took the ball in the enemy's territory with B. Hoke scoring from the six yard line and kicking the extra point, Goshen winning 7 to 0. Goshen's line, composed of L. Hoke, Winters, McConnell, Raifsnnyder, Keil, Leer, Simmons and Sample, stopped the opponent without a first down.

MICHIGAN CITY 7; GOSHEN 14

This game proved to be a loss although the Crimson and White won. Dick Stealy, G. H. S. fullback and one of the best athletes in the conference, suffered a broken leg during the first period. Although heartbroken, the rest of the team did not give up the fight and in the second quarter Jim Phend romped 35 yards to a touchdown. In the third quarter Goshen again scored after a 20 yard run by Peffley and a seven yard gain by B. Hoke. In the later minutes of the game Michigan City's Red Devils scored, bringing the final count to 14 to 7.

MISHAWAKA 14; GOSHEN 7

Goshen first met defeat at the hands of Mishawaka in the roughest game played by the Red Menace. Goshen led at the half 7 to 0 but Mishawaka's Cavemen proved to be just "that", for they came back with a slugging attack in the last half and injured Phend and Warstler, and then the officials ejected L. Hoke for supposedly unnecessary roughness, Mishawaka running over two touchdowns to win 14 to 7.

RILEY OF SOUTH BEND 12; GOSHEN 0

In their first night game of the season Goshen suffered their second loss in the conference to the Riley Wildeats. The Goshen team could not get "going" as they did in the three opening games and Heintzelman and Palmer, Riley's fleet footed backs, completely demoralized our team with long runs. Many times Goshen had chances to score but fumbles or pass incompletions wrecked their hopes.

LAPORTE 7; GOSHEN 20

The Crimson gridders got back in form by beating Coach Bennett's LaPorte Slicers in their second conference victory. Goshen led at half time 6 to 0 but in the latter part of the third quarter LaPorte scored on a fluke pass and took the lead, 7 to 6. With less than four minutes to go Goshen drove deep into LaPorte territory and after a bit of strategy by Coach Byers, Phend circled the end for a touchdown. After the kickoff, Goshen again tried an end run and this time Phend galloped 76 yards to a touchdown behind perfect interference, bringing the count to 20 to 7.

ELKHART 0; GOSHEN 21

With the slogan "this one for Stealy" in mind, Goshen began practicing several new plays for their traditional foes from ten miles west. The favored Blue and White from Elkhart and the fighting Crimson and White took the field with the glamour and color of five thousand fans waiting for the opening kickoff. Although the Blue Avalanche was favored, the Red Menace completely out-scored, out-fought, and out-smarted their opponents throughout the game, giving them one of the most decisive defeats in the Elkhart-Goshen rivalry. Every player played his finest game of the year.

NILES 6; GOSHEN 13

Still feeling proud because of the defeat handed Elkhart, the Red Menace was pushed to the limit by Niles, Mich., an entirely new foe in football. Twice the Niles team stopped Goshen within the shadow of the goal posts during the first half. Our hopes of victory faded when Jim Phend was hurt in the second quarter but Ralph Judday, halfback, took on the hero act by running 48 yards for a touchdown three minutes after the half started and again a few minutes later for eight yards and another touchdown. Niles scored on a short pass in the fourth quarter but Goshen held them in check during the remainder of the game.

SOUTH BEND 0; GOSHEN 6

After twenty-six years the Red Menace were finally able to down the Central Bears from South Bend. Goshen for the first time in those twenty-six years was favored to win and took advantage of this, as the score indicates 6 to 0. Goshen first scored on a pass in the first quarter but was called back by the officials, but the Crimson and White seemed confident of victory and scored again after a pass had been completed to the two yard line. Both teams fought to a standstill in the second half, the opponents getting no further than our 31 yard line. The last few minutes saw South Bend hurling a horde of passes but all were knocked down by the Crimson's staunch backs. So ended a most successful football season.

THE SQUAD

The Red Menace won seven games and lost two thus completing the first successful year since '29.

The warriors who helped throughout the successful year received sweaters for their remarkable work on the gridiron. The seniors are: Leroy Hoke, all-conference tackle, Harold Winters, guard, Jimmy Phend, all-conference quarterback, Gerald Isaacs, end, Burdette Hoke, fullback, Dick Stealy, fullback, Robert Garringer, center, Lloyd Simmons, guard, Max Leer, guard, Jay Peffley, halfback, Willis Getz, end, and Ray Keil, tackle, Ernest Sample, Harold Raifsnnyder, Carl Warstler, Ralph Juday, Fred Cunningham, Clifford Wert, and Jim McConnell also received sweaters, and should carry on successfully next year. Other players who showed ability during the season but did not receive sweaters were Chauncey Neff, Jim Miltenberger, Bob McConnell, Dick Culp, and Eddy Darr.

NOVEMBER 22.

After a successful season on the gridiron the Redskins opened the basketball season with a 28-26 victory over New Paris. Clason, sophomore forward, led the offense, while Phend and Sample starred on the defense.

NOVEMBER 27.

The Redskins again went triumphant just five days later to beat Warsaw's Tigers 21 to 9 in a ragged game. Clason again led the scorers, with 9 points.

NOVEMBER 29.

Goshen was thankful the day after Thanksgiving that the Concord Minute Men were a minute too late. The final score was 20 to 19, after Phend scored the winning basket in the last minute of play.

DECEMBER 6.

The Plymouth Pilgrims came to town confident of avenging a 26 to 0 football defeat but went home sadly disappointed when Goshen made them their fourth victim, 33 to 20. Jim McConnell, playing his first game with the varsity, netted 12 points.

DECEMBER 13.

The Redskins proceeded in their winning ways to defeat the Mishawaka Cavemen in their opening conference game, 26 to 22. Goshen took an early lead and controlled the ball during the remainder of the game to win easily.

DECEMBER 14.

The Elkhart Blue Blazers completely outclassed our Redskins the next evening, 29 to 13, holding Goshen to just two field goals during the game. Carberry and Yerke led Elkhart with 22 of their team's 29 points.

DECEMBER 20.

Our Redskins resumed their winning ways against a hard fighting Millersburg team, 27 to 17. The play was rather ragged and it proved to be a dull, uninteresting contest.

DECEMBER 27.

The Nappanee Bulldogs were next to fall before our Redskins to the tune of 26 to 14. The defensive play of Carl Warstler and the offensive play of Phil Stump, who made 14 points, were the highlights of the game.

JANUARY 1.

Goshen started the new year out right by winning the blind tournament at Plymouth, beating Plymouth's Pilgrims 35 to 29, and then winning the championship game 23 to 16 from Rochester's highly-touted Zebras.

JANUARY 3.

The Redskins entertained Michigan City in our second conference game and proved too strong for the Prison City boys, 20 to 11. Coach Byers used just five men during the entire game and all played up to expectations.

JANUARY 10.

The sharp-shooting LaPorte Slicers gave the Redskins their first conference loss, 29 to 22. The team could not cope with the long basket-shooting of the Slicers and were behind, 20 to 11, at the half, but played on even terms the last half.

JANUARY 17.

The Central Bears of South Bend fell before the Redskins in a conference game 20 to 13 after a hard fought battle. The game was fairly even the first three quarters but Goshen scored ten points in the last quarter to halt the Bears' attack.

JANUARY 24.

Demonstrating the fight which took them to the state last year, Nappanee nosed Goshen out of second place in the conference by their 26 to 19 victory on the home floor. The Redskins, unable to connect with the hoop, could not keep pace with the Bulldogs, who were led to victory by Richcreek and Phillips, who scored 20 of their team's points.

JANUARY 31.

With an eleven point rally in the second quarter Goshen's Redskins skinned the Riley Wildeats of South Bend, in a conference game, 27 to 22. Jimmy Phend led the scorers with four field goals and also did his share on defense.

FEBRUARY 1.

Goshen completely outclassed Mishawaka's Cavemen the next evening, 31 to 16, to fully avenge the football defeat given us. The Redskins took an early lead, due largely to the accurate basket-shooting of Ernie Sample and Phil Stump and went on to win easily.

FEBRUARY 7.

The Middlebury Middies stretched their winning streak to 14 games by defeating the Redskins before a capacity crowd. The Middies held a 20 to 12 advantage at the half. Rallying in the last half, the Redskins came within two points of the Middies, but the Middies regained their lead in the remaining minutes. The Redskins' weakness lay in their poor shooting, even missing set-up shots. Mott and Shoup led the Middies, while Clason led the Redskins with 14 points.

FEBRUARY 8.

The Redskins won their 14th game by scalping the Wakarusa Indians before a small crowd. The Indians put up a good scrap the first quarter but let down in the second quarter, to be trailing 13 to 7 at the half. Coach Byers shoved in the reserves in the fourth quarter after the regulars had run up a fair lead. The reserves widened the gap with the game ending 31 to 17 in our favor. Clason led the Redskins with 14 points.

FEBRUARY 14.

St. Valentine's Day, and did Elkhart give their hearts to Goshen. A far superior team beat the Blue Blazers 45 to 14 for sweet revenge. Clason and Stump with 14 and 13 points respectively led Goshen's attack. This victory assured Goshen of at least a tie for second place in the NIHSC.

FEBRUARY 21.

The South Side Archers of Fort Wayne were the sixteenth victim of the rampaging Redskins. Though the play was rather dull the first three quarters because Goshen held a commanding lead, the last quarter was fairly heated, F. W. being only four points behind when the gun ended the game, 30 to 26. In the absence of Clason, Warstler and McConnell led the Byersmen to victory with half of the team's total.

FEBRUARY 28.

In getting tuned up for the sectional Coach Byers used the reserves most of the time against Mentone. With Chiddister, Warstler, Darr, and Peffley scoring 40 of the team's points, the Redskins completely demoralized the Mentone team and proved themselves to be in great shape for the sectional tournament at Elkhart. The final score was 53 to 21.

SECTIONAL TOURNEY

Drawing one of the toughest schedules in years, the Redskins waded through four of the best teams in the county to annex the 1936 sectional crown. Friday afternoon we experienced little trouble in defeating Concord 37 to 29. Friday night, in one of the closest games of the tourney, we nosed out the undefeated Middlebury Middies 22 to 19. Still fresh, Saturday afternoon we defeated Nappanee 21 to 13 in a rather close game. Saturday night, with a fighting spirit that overcame all odds, our Redskins fought their hearts out to scalp the highly favored Elkhart Blue Blazers, 21 to 19, in an overtime game. Sample was put out on fouls in the third quarter and Clason had two ribs cracked but Peffley and Chiddister carried on in fine shape. Peffley sank two free throws in the overtime period to clinch the title for us. Hats off to the 1936 Sectional Champions.

REGIONAL TOURNEY

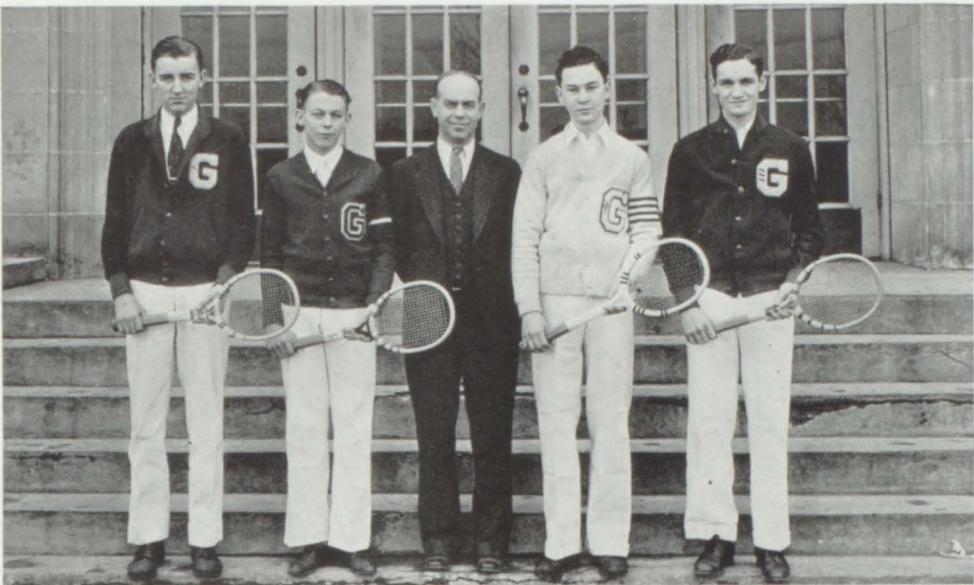

Scheduled to play Winamac in the opening game of the regional, Saturday afternoon, the Redskins traveled to Nappanee followed by throngs of enthusiastic Redskin rooters. The first quarter of the game was rather close, but the Redskins began to click and pulled away to a comfortable 25 to 17 lead at the half time. Coming back in the second half the Redskins kept up their pace with all ten men placing to win 34 to 21. In the second game, Riley of South Bend defeated Culver and gained the right to play in the finals against Goshen. After playing so brilliantly in the afternoon, our Redskins came back in the final game to experience one of the most disappointing "off nights" of the season. Riley had just the reverse spirit and played on an even basis with the Redskins, each tying the score several times. Then in the last minute of the game with a two point lead, Riley stalled to win, 18 to 16. Regardless of the outcome of the game, we still claim that the team this year is the best we have ever had.

TENNIS

The picture includes: Phil Stump, Jay Ecklebarger, Mr. Schenck, Gabert Kramer, and Dan Chiddister.

The Redskins' racquetees, coached by Mr. Schenck, had a fairly successful season last fall by winning half of their conference matches and one practice match.

Gabert Kramer, Dan Chiddister, Jay Ecklebarger, and Robert Rouen made up the first team and all four received their letters. The other members of the squad are Victor Stine, Jack Simmons and Ed. Losure.

The first match was played on September 6 with Plymouth and was easily won by a score of 5 to 0. The six conference matches turned out as follows:

- September 12—Goshen 2; LaPorte 3.
- September 17—Goshen 2; Mishawaka 3.*
- September 19—Goshen 4; Riley of South Bend 1.*
- September 24—Goshen 3; Central of South Bend 2.*
- October 1—Goshen 0; Elkhart 5.
- October 3—Goshen 4; Nappanee 1.

*Home games.

In all probability there will be some matches played this spring.

B A N D

The Goshen High School Concert Band has a complete instrumentation—the pieces numbering over sixty. As in former years, the band has been present to inspire the football and basketball crowds at all home games. This year the piece, "The Music Goes Round and Round" was a favorite and its rendition was truly an art.

After years of dreams and high hopes, the one great ambition was finally realized and the band was equipped with new uniforms. The Parents' Organization and the Merchants' Council are responsible in a large part for the new uniforms. The band and supervisors are very grateful to the citizens of Goshen for their loyalty and financial support.

At Peru, Indiana, the band was placed in the first division in the District Contest. Elkhart has the State Contest and the band, dressed in the beautiful new red uniforms for the first time, will surely present a wonderful picture. We are sure they will do their very best—with the new uniforms to inspire each and every member—and will win first place. The outlook for next year's band is very good, as there is only a small number of its members graduating.

O R C H E S T R A

The Goshen High School Concert Orchestra has an instrumentation of some sixty pieces. Miss Hower was unable to return because of illness and her place was taken by Mr. Brinklow and Miss Vawter.

At Peru the orchestra won first place in Class B and will compete at Elkhart in the State Contest. This is "Band Year" (meaning that the band will be sent to the National Contest if it is eligible) and there will be no National Contest for the orchestra, but we hope to see it come through with flying colors next year—as they did in 1933.

If the orchestra places in the first division at Elkhart and is recommended by the judges it will not be necessary for it to compete in the District and State Contests next year and it will be permitted to go straight to the National Contest. We surely hope it places in first division. The members are looking forward to "Orchestra Year" next year.

*Happiness, friendliness, pleasure, and cheer

THE CRIMSON OF 1936

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

We Sunshine Stars have been shining in Sunshine Stardom.

The first highlight of the season was the District Convention, October 5 at Fort Wayne, attended by a merry group from Goshen.

For new local members, installation services with candle ritual and reverent solitude made an impressive ceremony.

The cabinet composed of Sonia Love, Jean Harter, Joan Rummel, Esther Leer, Genevieve Warner, Margaret Sunthimer, Eunice Weaver, Elizabeth Pressler, Lois Peffley, Mildred Wallace, Mary Swihart, Gladys Roderick and the President, Frances Barnard, promoted a point system requiring each girl to earn 75 points to become a member. A S. S. Honor Club is to grow out of this system. Membership was secured by 180 girls who celebrated with a party.

While Dick Stealy was in the hospital, a S. S. Surprise Basket was delivered to him. Miss Hower was remembered with a Santa Claus pack of notes, letters, and cards.

A call for food and household articles secured a response sufficient to fill 16 Thanksgiving Baskets for needy families. Many members contributed clothing which was altered at Chamberlain school for those in need of it.

The S. S. S. donated 91 quarts of fruit and 32 jars of jelly to the hospital. Ninety-two articles for the Needle Work Guild was a bigger response than that of previous years, due to the point system.

The winners of the annual holly wreath contest, Jean Harter, who sold 157, and Lois Peffley, who sold 84, received as their award a season ticket to the basketball tournament.

A Lincoln and Washington Bulletin Board Program was sponsored. The S. S. S. paper, the G. H. S. Roller, has attracted attention and is under the direction of the following staff: Editor-in-chief, Elizabeth Pressler; assistant editor, Mildred Wallace; literary, Rose Ellen Minnich; organizations, Elaine Plank and Willadene Smith; art, Betty Kercher and Betty E. Yoder; jokes, Virginia Miller and June Kintigh; Chatterbox, Elinor Cobbum, Christine Bruce and Janis Larimer; class reporters, Annette Snoke, Margaret Gill, Donna Stoller, and Mary Swihart.

To help spread international good will, addresses of girls in foreign countries have been obtained, each class having a person with whom to correspond. The Freshmen selected Holland, Sophomores Denmark, Juniors East Indies, and Seniors Switzerland. Secretaries for each class take charge of the letters: Freshmen, Erma Fidler; Sophomores, Margaret Sunthimer; Juniors, Betty Jean Kercher; and Seniors, Gladys Roderick.

Money was contributed to the Red Cross flood relief, and to Riley Hospital for a children's library.

Gladys Roderick, Eunice Weaver, Evelyn Huber, Fern Berkey, Betty Markham, Frances Barnard, Genevieve Warner, Lois Peffley, and Mary Swihart were accompanied by Miss Wahl to the State Sunshine Convention at Monon, Indiana, on March 28.

The Senior Sunshine girls entertained their mothers on May 3rd with a delightful breakfast, served in the cafeteria.

This club was organized to finance the Debating Team and to further forensics. Under the capable leadership of Bette Yoder they accomplished both goals.

During the year, due to the popularity of the club, an amendment was made to the constitution limiting the persons who could achieve membership.

A Valentine party was held February 14 for the members and their guests. An exchange was made and the evening was spent in entertainment relating to the holiday.

The remainder of the officers are as follows: Secretary, Eleanor Yoder; Vice-President, Bob Rouen; Treasurer, Bonne Yoder; Sergeant-at-arms, Quentin Yoder.

The Health Council, having twelve members, has been playing an active part in G. H. S. ever since it was organized in 1930 by Miss Nixon.

The chief purpose of this organization is to create an interest in everyday "Health Habits", and to impress upon the minds of the students the great importance of good health.

The activities of the council have been many and helpful during the past year, showing clearly their sincere desire to be of help to their community.

The sale of apples each day repeatedly put the clever slogan "Less candy for students" into the minds of knowing pupils. Shortly before Christmas the members of the council, headed by Miss Nixon, sold Christmas Seals with which they aided tuberculosis sanatoriums throughout the United States. Around $30.00 worth were sold. During the campaign a one-act play, stressing the importance of these Christmas seals, was given, both in school and to various clubs in Goshen and Elkhart.

In May, the annual poster contest was held and prizes were awarded for the best "Good Health Posters".

To that group of students who so boldly sign up each year for such an "impossible and exceedingly difficult" course, physics proves itself neither impossible nor exceedingly difficult, but instead, fascinating and very much worth while, enough so that this year a Physics Club was again organized.

Under the leadership of Robert Cripe, the president, and Mr. Beck, the sponsor, the club held its meetings every few weeks in the physics room in the high school. Lectures and demonstrations were given to increase the knowledge of the members, as well as to make physics a more interesting subject. As the members of the club are a very normal group a part of each meeting was devoted to entertainment.

The Scribblers Club started on its third year of work last fall when twenty-five students interested in "scribbling" reorganized it. The meetings were held every two weeks either at the home of the sponsor, Miss Galentine, at the home of a member or out-of-doors. These meetings were very well conducted by the officers, who were: Jay Ecklebarger, president; Eunice Weaver, vice-president; Imogene Culp, secretary, and Joy Stump, treasurer. Betty Jean Kercher, Elizabeth Pressler and Eugene Bagwell served as a standing program committee.

The main feature of each meeting was the reading of the manuscripts submitted by the members. Short stories, essays and poetry were welcomed alike. Constructive criticism was given in open discussion following the reading. The club is proud of the many fine contributions it has received and the great strides the members have made in their writing this year.

In the future we hope to see the members as well known writers. We have as a member a newspaper writer whom many read in the daily paper and we all hope he gets to the top.

Much credit goes to Miss Galentine for her understanding and help with work which appeals to the members.

The student council after a year of inactivity resumed its work of bettering school conditions. The nucleus of the council was composed of Eleanor Yoder, Bill Bullock, Bob Walter, Dick Culp and Bob Rouen. These five nominated the candidates from the classes to fill up the rest of the vacancies in the council.

At the initial meeting the following officers were elected: Bob Rouen, president; Bill Bullock, vice-president; Eleanor Yoder, secretary-treasurer.

The projects which the council backed were many. They had charge of the pep session before the Middlebury basketball game. All the school organizations were asked to put on assembly programs, the bulletin boards were kept clean by members of the organization. In the way of athletics the council sponsored a class basketball tournament and a class decathlon. Also attempts at entertaining the people who remain at noon were made with horseshoe pitching being introduced, as well as kittenball.

VERGIL CLUB

The picture includes: Tyson Carpenter, Eugene Bagwell, Martha Madlem, Mary Miller, Lillian Schmidt, Mildred Wallace, Ruth Inbody, Eunice Weaver, Russ Landers, Verle Hoffman, Robert Hartzler, Henrietta Bailey, Miss Wahl, Bill Bullock and Fred Blosser.

Upon entering the portals of wherever the Vergil Club meets, the Vergil class, which makes up the personnel of the Vergil Club, become "gods" and "goddesses", ready for fun, frolic, and a bit of seriousness on their own Mt. Olympus.

One of the highlights of the year was a banquet in the true Roman fashion to the last detail. The first year Latin students who acted as slaves for the Vergil students, received a generous idea of Roman life at this banquet.

The members of the club assume the following names: Miss Wahl, our sponsor, the Cumaeian Sibyl; Eugene Bagwell, Jupiter (president); Eunice Weaver, Diana (secretary); Mary Miller, Minerva (treasurer); Henrietta Bailey, June; Mildred Wallace, Vesta; Martha Madlem, Fata; Ruth Inbody, Ceres; Lillian Schmidt, Venus; Robert Hartzler, Vulcan; Bill Bullock, Mercury; Fred Blosser, Mars; Tyson Carpenter, Apollo; Russ Landers, Bacchus; and Verle Hoffman, Neptune.

GOSHEN HIGH SCHOOL FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Goshen Chapter Future Farmers of America (F. F. A.) is one of the largest clubs in Goshen High School. The club is made up of farm boys who have taken or are taking Vocational Agriculture. At the present time there are about fifty boys in the club.

The purpose or aim of the Future Farmers of America is: To prepare the farm youth of today for better farm life of tomorrow.

The F. F. A. has for several years taken part in various activities such as: competing in judging contests, oratorical contests, state and national chapter contests, chapter reporters' contests and having its members receive the honor of state and national farmer degrees, at state and national F. F. A. conventions.

During the year of 1935 the Goshen F. F. A. was very successful. They won many contests and ranked high in others. Several trophies were won by the local chapter, namely: the loving cup for the regional oratorical contest, a trophy for apple judging, several cups for poultry and livestock winning teams. A state contest is being held this year. The prize is a large wall plaque for the state champion oration. As a chapter, Goshen F. F. A. stood second in the state of Indiana in 1935.

The F. F. A.'s work is outlined and adopted by its members and advisers.

BOW AND ARROW STAFF

Under the management of Miss Wise the school paper was issued by the Business English class. The publication furnishes the class with valuable experience in journalism which is invaluable to the students.

The paper was renamed so that it might corroborate with the name "Redskins". Every few weeks an issue was published containing school news, happenings and sometimes tales on students and teachers.

GLEE CLUBS

It is the custom for the Band and Orchestra to enter the State Contest but it has been but the last few years the Glee Clubs entered in competition. In the annual Eisteddfod held at Mishawaka both the Girls' and Boys' Glee Clubs won first place in Class B.

Due to the untiring efforts of Mr. Brinklow the organizations did outstanding work. At Christmas a cantata with several solos was presented and a number of associations were entertained during the year.

We should really be very proud of these boys and girls because of their achievements, rewarded by two plaques.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club, like most worth while clubs, has a motto, which is "Science, Sense, and Nonsense". The club colors are black and gold.

Financially the Chemistry Club has been a failure this year, since we had no opportunity to earn through concessions or otherwise, but we were quite successful at spending the money earned by clubs in former years. We have purchased a spectroscope and are buying a microscope or two and probably a high speed vacuum pump.

From the literature standpoint we subscribed for the "Colliers" (to help along the school magazine campaign), the "News Letter" and the "Science Leaflet". These, of course, are not used only by club members, but by all Chemistry students.

The programs for this year were built around some day or event, whenever possible. Special programs were held at Christmas and to celebrate the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln. Most of the programs were presented by the club members who gave reports, performed experiments or gave musical entertainment of one kind or another. We had, however, two outside speakers, Dr. Miller from the College, who spoke on "The Formation of Crystals" and Principal O. L. Walter.

Plans for our annual outdoor gathering in May and our spring banquet are now under way.

Our sponsor is Mr. S. H. Welty, who was assisted by two sets of officers this year. He was aided the first semester by Dick Culp, president; Eloise Miller, vice-president; Willadene Smith, secretary; Donald Peterson, treasurer. The assistants this semester are: president, Alverda Price; vice-president, Russ Landers; secretary, Betty Wein; treasurer, Robert Weaver; monitor, Bill Rieth, and Robert Rouen, critic.

CAESAR CLUB

The Caesar Club is composed of three second-year Latin classes. Miss Wahl is the adviser and sponsor, while Tom Yoder is the president. Other officers are, Don Yoder, vice-president; Harriet Miller, secretary-treasurer; John Stose, Robert Miller, and Jack Higgins, sergeants-at-arms.

The club is organized to stimulate interest in Latin and to create friendship among the students of Caesar. Committees of four members each were chosen, in alphabetical order, to arrange the details of each meeting.

Business, pleasure, and last but not least, refreshments, composed the thoroughly enjoyed meetings.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club, which was just organized last year, has led an interesting and successful year. We have about forty-five paid members now. Our officers for the past year have been Henrietta Bailey, president; Eleanor Hepler, vice-president; Virginia Miller, treasurer; Evelyn Inbody, secretary, and Genevieve Warner, reporter.

Some of our activities during the past year have been a Halloween party at the home of Arlene Phillips and a Penny Supper, at which we entertained the F. F. A. boys. In addition to these we have had a very interesting group of programs for our meetings. We have also joined the State Society of Home Economics Clubs.

Although we lose a number of our members through graduation, we look forward to a very successful year in 1936-37 under our sponsors, Miss Wright and Miss Peckinpaugh.

HI-Y CLUB

The local Hi-Y is an organization which was not built up in a year but is a step in the nation-wide Christian movement of the secondary schools which started in 1870.

The present order of this movement was started in Culver, Indiana, and the name Hi-Y was adopted by the West Side School in Cleveland, Ohio.

The local Hi-Y was founded in 1924 with the aid of the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs. Richard Elliot, Russel Rathka, Albert Gill, and Willis Smoker drew up the constitution and by-laws, headed by Mr. Walter. Mr. Schenck is the sponsor of the present club and the officers are: Harold Winters, president; Charles Aust, vice-president; Jay Peffley, secretary; John Snobarger, treasurer, and Willis Getz, chaplain.

The annual football banquet for the football squad was held this year after being discontinued for the past three years. The meetings of this organization are held every other Monday night in the club rooms at the high school.

The Hi-Y has been one of Goshen High School's most active clubs and has prospered for many years and it's the hope of all the members that it will continue to serve G. H. S. as it has in the past.

First row: Mr. Byers, Dick Stealy, Chick Bowman, Leroy Hoke, Jim Phend, Harold Winters, Carl Warstler.

"G" CLUB

Many of the students of the High School have never heard of the "G" Club. This organization was discontinued in 1930, but it was reorganized by Coach Herman Byers in 1933. Under the supervision of Mr. Byers the club has made much progress in the last two years.

Only the boys who have earned the G. H. S. athletic award in one of the major sports are eligible for membership. Each boy is given a club pin upon entering its membership. Officers are elected each year and the meetings are held "every now and then".

The officers for 1936 are: president, Jim Phend; vice-president, Dick Stealy; secretary, Chick Bowman; and treasurer, LeRoy Hoke.

THE CRIMSON OF 1936

FANTASY

*On a peak by the sea,
Lonely peak by the sea
With the sharp jagged rocks all around,
Where the grey green waves,
Swirling, dashing waves,
On the rocks make a wild, woeful sound
Where the green seaweed,
Torn and tangled seaweed,
Washes high on the bleak and barren shore,
And the clouds are a mist,
A heavy, tearful mist,
That shall hover o'er the peaks for evermore,
Is a castle made of stone,
Of grey green jagged stone,
Rising from the rocks where it has grown.
And it towers there alone,
Oh, so woefully alone,
That all the sea birds from its haunts have flown.
In a high and narrow tower,
At a casement where the cold green mosses creep,
Sits a woman beautiful,
Calm and sadly beautiful,
And her eyes with weeping much are dull and deep
She sits there every day
Every long, unending day
Deadened by eternal memory.
And all the while she's gazing,
Ever steadfastly gazing,
Gazing, gazing, gazing at the sea.*

MARTHA NEVILLE MADLEM.

*I wonder if the wind knows of despair—
The wailing wind that wings it way
Across the sky at midnight,
And whips the gleaming clouds over the maiden moon.
I wonder if she has spurned his love,
That he should try to bury her from sight;
That he should fill the lonely glen with woeful shrieks,
And make the poplars tremble at his moaning.
Harken! what mournful sobs
He whispers to the cold, unfeeling moon*

MARTHA NEVILLE MADLEM.

A SYMBOL

*A symbol of cheerfulness
Are red candles on a buffet,
They make one's spirit rise
Like the warmth of a sun's ray.*

A GIFT

*When the clouds are dark and gloomy,
And scarcely the light peeps through,
Here's a pack of golden sunshine—
SMILE—my little gift to you.*

MARIAN WHITNEY.

A KITTEN'S RETURNING

*A flash of gray beside the house
Light footsteps on the ground,
To be home again is better
The wanderer has found.*

MARGARET INEBNIT.

SUNSHINERS

*As the kind sun sends out its radiant rays,
We, too, send out our tender gifts of love.
And as the welcome beams thrust through the clouds,
With warmth and cheer, true friendship lights life's way.*

CLASS DAY

SALUTATORY

Parents, Teachers, and Friends—

We, the class of 1936, welcome you to our class day exercises this afternoon. We are, indeed, glad to have you with us as we review our past four years of high school life. When we entered this school we thought that four years would be a long time, but now it is all too soon that we find that we must leave this building and that all our pleasant associations with it will be only a memory. But we should not look backward—"time marches forward"—so "off with the old and on with the new"!

A new life is beckoning and we will not shirk our new duties. What we have learned here will help us in our new undertaking. But now for the present—we would like to retrace with you our school life of the past and also give you our prophecies for the future.

MARGARET INEBNIT.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

Today we are pausing to reflect upon the events of our last four years. As we look back now, we must observe that whatever achievements we have made, have been due not to our own initiative, but have been due, at least in part, to the sacrifices of others. Many of you here today have been responsible for our attaining our goal—"graduation". As our lives have thus been affected by you, we in turn shall affect the lives of others. With this thought carried with us, we shall endeavor to do as well as we possibly can at all times.

On this occasion we are commemorating the termination of the Class of 1936 as a unit, but at the same time we are celebrating a rebirth, so to speak, of the members of this class, for the life, for which we have long been preparing, is in reality just commencing.

We realize that the Class of 1936 is soon to take its place in this world. Up to the present time our training, for the most part, has been nearly the same, so that we are equally equipped to meet the problems of life. However, in the future our character and our initiative will decide our separate destinies.

We might be compared with tiny seeds, which, on receiving nourishment from the soil, push upward through the newly turned earth. In the same way, the greater the force we exert and the greater the energy devoted to our tasks, the higher shall we rise.

Now as we turn to choose our future, many of us are at a loss as to what to decide. Whatever course we may take, we will find that we cannot go wrong by choosing an occupation in which we may be of service to our fellowmen. We shall find that the greatest happiness is found in serving others. We shall have an opportunity to use the training we have received here to the best advantage, in making this world a happier and more beautiful place in which to live. Now as we peer into the future, though there is little for us to see, little that we can comprehend, there is much for us to do.

RICHARD CULP.

THE CRIMSON OF 1936

CLASS HISTORY

I

The "History of the Class of '36" may be considered as a movie serial that is divided into four chapters. The typical movie serial has its low moments of interest and also its very high points. So it is with our class.

The members of our class are the actors and Miss Graham and Mr. Brown, as sponsors, are the directors of our serial.

In the first chapter of our serial we were being introduced into high school life, and we found it very hard to obtain distinction. The leading parts this year are given to Bette Yoder as president, Philip Inebnit as vice-president, Elizabeth Nafziger as secretary, Jay Ecklebarger as treasurer, and Willis Getz and Harold Winters as sergeants-at-arms. Thus closed our Freshman year.

II

After three months our second chapter began. We came back and having made a suitable record, found ourselves treated with respect.

The villain of our serial must have kidnaped our first chapter leading actors and we had to choose the following in their places: Willis Getz as president, Bill Unger as vice-president, Margaret Inebnit as secretary, Dick Culp as treasurer, and LeRoy Hoke and Phil Stump as sergeants-at-arms.

The class of this year seemed to be "E" minded because eighteen members of the class received honor sweaters for scholastic ability.

The roles of star athletes for our sophomore year were taken by: Harold Winters, LeRoy Hoke, and James Phend.

III

Then, after a rest, we undertook the third chapter. Our serial was becoming a success and we felt very important, so important that we looked upon the "Freshies" as infants.

We started the third chapter with determination, by choosing the following leading actors: James Phend as president, Fred Blosser as vice-president, Gladys Roderick as treasurer, Charles Aust as secretary, and Harold Winters and Lloyd Simmons as sergeants-at-arms.

We gambled with two new experiences this year: the "prom", and the class play, "Huckleberry Finn". Both of these enterprises proved to be successes and we had a feeling of importance.

Our class still held its head high in scholarship, having seventeen members who received four or five "E's" consistently.

Our heroes of sport were: James Phend, Harold Winters, LeRoy Hoke, Dick Stealy, Phil Stump, and Burdette Hoke.

IV

The fourth and final chapter of our serial began smoothly and we were now "tops" in serial production.

Mr. French was chosen as sponsor in the absence of Mr. Brown. The following were chosen for the title roles of the Senior class: Dick Culp, president; Robert Gangerer, vice-president; Vera Gonderman, secretary; William Bullock, treasurer, and Dick Stealy and Harold Winters, sergeants-at-arms.

"The Luck of the Irish" was chosen as the senior play, and Bette Yoder and Dick Culp handled the leading roles very well, as did the remainder of the cast.

The honors in scholarship this year went to Margaret Inebnit, Mildred Wallace, and William Bullock.

During our senior year we had the enjoyment of seeing Goshen defeat and completely show up Elkhart in football and basketball. Both the football and basketball teams had very successful seasons, in spite of the injury of a swell friend and great athlete, Dick Stealy.

The leading warriors of sport who ended their sport activities in Goshen High School this year are: James Phend, Dick Stealy, LeRoy Hoke, Harold Winters, Burdette Hoke, Phil Stump, and Jay Peffley.

The "Class of 1936" put many things into school life and received in return the one thing, "Accomplishment".

So ends the serial of the "Class of '36" which ended at the highest point of excitement and achievement in our young lives, "Graduation".

ROBERT GARRINGER.

CLASS GRUMBLE

Friends and Teachers:

Many are the faults I have found and many are the people I have met during my four years of high school life whom I can grumble about. In the first place, I do not see why, out of some 125 seniors, I was picked for this job. Now, I suppose you're grumbling, because practically every class grumbler since the dawn of history has said the same thing, when he was really very glad to get the job.

One of my pet peeves and also that of many of the other seniors is the band uniforms. After four years of old moth-eaten capes and dirty white trousers the band finally got new uniforms for the contest, this year, our last. And do not think those trousers did not get dirty. If you do not believe me ask any mother who had to wash them. Then, to top that off, Jupiter Pluvius turned against us with the result that we could not get our new uniforms in time for the district band contest because of the floods.

Another big cause of much of the senior grief was the "High School Notes" appearing in the Goshen Daily News-Times and Democrat and edited by our very, very clever columnist, Walter Winchell Bagwell. No matter what we did or what we did not do we always got razzed about it. We did not do anything right. If we picked one person for one thing in the class, he or she was the wrong one; if we charged ten cents for dues we should have charged fifteen cents. My prediction is that if he razzes next year's Junior class as much as he did this year's Senior class, Mrs. Bagwell's little boy, Buster, may need the address of a plastic surgeon.

After four years of breaking springs, shock absorbers and what have you on our cars, or rather our parents' cars, the school board finally decided to have the school road paved. Imagine, no more bouning from bump to bump, from mountain to mountain, from valley to valley and we graduate. We do not get to enjoy the wonderful smooth pavements of our high school. I ask you, ladies and gentlemen, is that justice, is that fair?

Now let us turn to the faculty, last but not least. Certainly not the least of the causes of our numerous worries. The first thing that slips into my mind when I think of teachers is Mr. Walter. What student, on arriving late at school has not trod that well-worn path to the office. What student has not seen a flash of pink and then read those horrible words "C Grade Excuse". This means that the student is the proud (?) possessor of a pink slip.

The teachers who cannot write out pink slips, there are a few, have as their weapons "U's". "U's" are given for everything. Miss Smith specializes in breaking up romances between freshmen and seniors via the "U" method. Then there are "U's" given for sleeping. The star of this pastime is Miss Barnes, whose hunting ground is the library. Miss Graham and Miss Stutz lead the parade when it comes to giving "U's" for talking in the study halls although Miss Barnes again scores heavily in the library. No matter how short or soft the sentence a "U" adorns the report card because of it. One of the leaders in the art of catching campus cutters is Mr. Schenek. I believe that he sits by the window hours at a time in order to catch some hapless student stepping on a blade of grass.

I could talk for hours about the crimes committed in the name of education. If I did I would mention that Shanklin sarcasm, the debating ability of Mr. Gerig, no one has ever beaten him in an argument, and numerous other causes for school skipping.

"Well", do not ever let Miss Wahl hear you start a sentence with "well" or else—, I guess I might as well quit because nobody will pay heed to the information I have given them and they will send their children to school, a childhood of horror, just the same.

BOB ROUEN.

CLASS ORATION

Friends:

Figuratively speaking, tomorrow is at hand. During these school years, we have awaited it eagerly. Each one of us has seriously contemplated the time when he or she would be going on his way alone. Some looked forward to it with enthusiasm and the desire to develop their ideals and ambitions; others viewed it with hesitation and doubt. But we all realize that we will soon be leaving the protection and security of an established home and speculation has filled our minds as to how adequate our preparations are for this tomorrow. Let us face it squarely.

Can we think clearly? Can we adapt ourselves to changing conditions? Do we have the ability and courage to carry out our ambitions to enforce our ideals? Are we earnestly and honestly trying to see and realize the good that exists in everything?

We have all met the cheery, smiling individual who greeted us with a radiant "good morning"! We have all felt inspired by that same radiant spirit. While in that genial mood, we sent out good will and good thoughts which, penetrating into our surroundings, seemed to influence them. Our affairs went smoothly; things came our way, because we were acknowledging and putting into effect that active principle of life, the principle of seeing the good in everything. By always thinking and applying this principle, our affairs will go smoothly at all times. With that standard inseparable from the inner depths of our beings, a beautiful spirit toward life develops. We build up a solid foundation of joy and happiness. Thus there is embodied in our characters that condition of the mind whose affinity is each individual's success.

MILDRED WALLACE.

CLASS PROPHECY

I, Allah, an Akbar from Afghanistan, have been summoned from afar to fulfill the desire of this most illustrious class of '36, the desire to hear what the future holds for them. So, hear, friends what the crystal discloses.

Aha! A New York hospital. 'Twas built by the famous philanthropist, Harold Winters, and is managed by a famous doctor, Bob Rouen! I recognize on his staff of assistants, Elizabeth Shoup and two of the nurses, Priscilla Kelly and Ruth Wilden.

The crystal shifts to the art museum—two artists are displaying their drawings. They are Corvan Cripe and Stanley Floerkey.

Now to New York. A printing office, owned by Charles Aust and Phil Inebnit is rushing out an extra: "Bert Harsh's third attempt to reach the moon is successful"!

I see a studio of WLW. Before the mike is John Snobarger announcing the next feature, "Carol Simmons, soprano, will sing that new hit, 'Sing in Tune' by Woodrow Smoker".

Hollywood! A play, "Sally Took the Cake", by Elnora Long, is being filmed, starring Elinor Cobbum and the Yoder twins. One of the camera men is Walter Volski.

A tennis court looms up in Los Angeles. Jay Eeklebarger defeats Gabert Kramer, making him the new U. S. champ. He is being congratulated by the mayor, who is none other than Bob Garringer.

Foreign lands. In Africa two young women, Wilberta Paxton and Gladys Roderick, are teaching the natives "croquet". In India is Arthur Parker, Jr., a crack salesman for Wrigley's chewing gum. His personal secretary is Helen Frick.

Basketball! James Phend, basketball authority, demonstrates the correct method of shooting a basket to the Bristol Beatsem Boys, coached by Beets Hoke. A professional team comes into view; on it are Jay Peffley and Phil Stump. Chick Bowman is now manager of the Chicago Cubs.

The crystal clouds. As it clears again I see someone at work in a garden—it is Dick Stealy, the sensational plant wizard, said to be equal to Luther Burbank. A farm comes to view; its owner is Paul Martin, a cattle expert. Here is yet another, owned by Harold Straw, who is known for his new crop rotation plan.

Ah! here is a young woman who has broken the world's speed record in typing, formerly held by Melba Kitson. Her name? Lucille Frick. I see Lavon Holdred has become a lecturer on woman's rights.

I hear music. 'Tis the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, led by Daris Voorhees. Among his violinists are Eleanor Yoder, Harriet Miller, and Eloise Burkholder. In the 'cello section is Bette Blough, and Mary Ellen Dively is there among the basses.

Indianapolis. A sign comes to view—"Helen's Marcelle Shop", owned by Helen Cripe. Inside I see a neat assistant, Thelma Steele; and another, Leona Wideman, is marcelling the hair of one of the leading society women of Indianapolis. It is Mrs. Mead, formerly Elaine Plank.

A circus! Owned by Marion Darr, is featuring for its greatest attraction Quentin Yoder's famous troupe of trained fleas. I see Rosemary Martin is featured as the Strong Woman!

The cover of a book comes to view. Its title is "Assorted Poems", by those famous rhymsters, Martha Madlem and Mildred Wallace.

The crystal shifts to a lonely schoolhouse in Montana. There, rapping her pencil on the desk, is Eleanor Fisher. Ernest Lamb is also teaching, in a little school in Alaska.

A pamphlet entitled "The Advisability of Buying a Model T Ford", by John Wein, is in great demand and has caused Model T's to leap to an enormous price.

Our own home town! Charles Miller, in a police uniform, is holding down the street corner. Bob Corl has joined the ranks of the firemen. At work in the courthouse, I see Anna Marie Hartzler and Mary K. Gotham. Agnes Grise is a nurse in the hospital.

Over in Elkhart, Floyd Miller is manager of the secretarial department of the Alka-Seltzer Factory. On his staff of stenographers I see Phyllis Bigler and Doris Bartlett. More stenographers—in the Indianapolis Public Service Department are Eloise Miller and Marion Currier. In a Cleveland office I see Vivian Rogers and Mary K. Reasoner.

Drums and bugles! It's the army! There is Ray Keil, in a first lieutenant's uniform. In the ranks I see Bill Holtzinger and Robert VanNess. William Ralston has won distinction in the air corps.

Lloyd Simmons owns a large manufactory of hobby horses. His private secretary is Virginia Kyle and the head of the complaints department is Audrey Jane Forney. Harold Neff has been elected best high-pressure salesman of the factory.

A work shop. Everywhere are coils fine wire, and strange little gadgets. At his desk is Robert Yoder, a brilliant inventor. Eldon Yoder has proved himself a valuable assistant.

Ah! A Paris fashion show! I recognize two of the models, Doris Zemans and Vera Gonderman. One of the judges is Marian Lea, a well known style critic.

Here is a poultry farm owned by Wilyard Mitschelen, who has produced a bird which is half duck and half turkey.

A furniture store in Muncie is owned by Ronald Miller; his business treasurer is Doris Unziker, and I recognize two of his clerks, Mary Swihart and Verlyn Grover.

I hear a plane speeding northward. Its pilot is Orres Holderman, with whom is Jack Hollinger, a famous explorer. They are on their way to the North Pole to determine the material the pole is made of, in hopes of making more poles like it.

Flashing lights! The Jefferson Theatre! The feature for the week is a play starring Elsie Yoder, a second Mae West.

Washington, D. C. In the Supreme Court sits our class treasurer, Bill Bullock. Rep. Jeannette Berger has been made speaker of the house—the first woman speaker. In the President's cabinet is our president, Dick Culp, now Secretary of the Interior.

I am directed to London where I find Robert Mitchell, a mathematician said to be equal to Einstein.

A crowd of people—it's the Olympics! The swimming match is on—two bodies strike the water—they are Beatrice Branson and Rosevelyn Mousseotte. There is Sequester Myers, the new golf champion. On the toboggan team is Lavon Beachy.

Kokomo High School. In the principal's chair is Charles Hess. On his staff of teachers are Margaret Inebnit, Pauline Vandermass, and Helen Phillips.

A quiet church in Kentucky. In the pulpit stands Orville Gunden.

Helen Leming has started a shop in Chicago for sewing on buttons for bachelors. Among her assistants are Frances Culler and Evelyn Masters. The shop has been growing rapidly since the famous bachelor-millionaire, Donald Rutt, started patronizing them.

A well known lecturer appears. He is making a tour of Europe explaining his World Peace Plan. His name, Robert Walter.

More prominent people! Harold Guilfoos has become manager of the fastest railroad line in the U. S. Seated at his secretarial desk is Helen Bontrager.

In Toledo is an exclusive shop for ladies, with Betty Barron, proprietor. Among her clerks are Cecilia Daub, Katherine Rathka, and Mary Wurster. The wealthy lady who has just entered is Mrs. Denton, formerly Bette Bosse.

A clinic's office in Buffalo—the occupant is Ed Duzy. Next door is a funeral home owned by LeRoy Hoke. Could the two be working in cahoots?

Inventions! Willis Getz is rushed with orders for his new auto which runs on air. LaMar Leer has completed a successful perpetual-motion machine.

An interior decorating shop in Fort Wayne. Its managers are Frances Barnard and Jean Burr. I recognize one of the aides, Mary Swihart. Another business woman, Virginia Hickey, is manager of the Woolworth store.

A space ship! Its co-pilots are Hugh Spencer and Romane Culp. At work on one of the motors is a mechanic Vergil Miller.

I see a famous social worker in St. Louis, Rose Ellen Minnich. A bridge looms up—building it are Jesse Cripe and Donald Keifer.

Thus I have completed my duty to this class. May they prosper.

FRED BLOSSER.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1936 of Goshen High School, being of unusually strong mind and studious temperament despite fate's cruel hand, do hereby make known our last will and testament in the following form:

SECTION I.

Item I. The Senior Class leaves a special sum of $1.00, which is to be used for the care of our remains. We hope we shall be given a decent burial.

Item II. To our dear friends, the up-and-coming Junior Class, we bequeath this beautiful high school building and the intelligent teachers.

Item III. With the Sophomores we gladly leave an abundant supply of pink slips, which, we hope, will be used as freely and generously as in the past.

Item IV. To the dear little Freshmen we bequeath our ability of at least looking intelligent when the occasion demands.

Item V. To the entire school, including teachers and other austere personages, we leave a goodly share of our brilliance. May they profit by it.

Item VI. We find it fitting and proper to will to the faculty our sincerest appreciation and thanks for the excellent leadership which they have given us during the last four years.

SECTION II.

Item I. Dick Culp leaves his presidential ability to the next Senior class president. We hope he will be as competent as Dick has been.

Item II. Dick Stealy desires to leave his athletic ability in care of Leonard Yoder. Leonard, opportunity only knocks once.

Item III. Jim Phend is leaving his popularity with feminine underclassmen to Joe Rensberger. We are sure that this privilege will be used to the fullest extent as it has been in the past.

Item IV. To Jim McConnell goes Stanley Floerkey's artistic ability. By the way, Jim, this gift is not to be used on the basketball floor.

Item V. Upon request, Willis Getz bequeaths his way with the girls to Ernest Sample.

Item VI. Elinor Cobbum leaves to Virginia Rohrer her carefree and happy-go-lucky attitude.

Item VII. Robert Mitchell, Doris Unzicker, Margaret Inebnit and Bill Bullock bequeath their scholastic ability to Richard Weaver, Charles Bryner, Eunice Weaver and Tyson Carpenter.

Item VIII. A special sum of 50 cents, donated by several anxious seniors, is given to Mr. Schenek in order that he may purchase a special pair of noiseless non-imprintable galoshes to aid him in his detective work.

Item IX. As his last request, Don Rutt wishes that some kind-hearted person would give Miss Barnes a phonograph record to use in the library, which will keep repeating, "Quiet, please". But then, we don't believe Miss Barnes will need it, now that Don is leaving.

Item X. Bette Bosse, Phil Inebnit, Elaine Plank, and Harold Neff leave the night of April 19th and the high school's front drive to Eldon Williams and Mary Jane Blough.

Item XI. Bob Rouen bequeaths his ability to argue with Betty Barney (and win) in care of Tom Yoder.

Item XII. Gabert Kramer leaves his success as a "star" in tennis to Dan Chidister.

Item XIII. Elsie Yoder gives her best wishes to George Price.

Item XIV. LeRoy Hoke wants to give to David Mayberry his heavy beard.

Item XV. To Victor Stine goes Daris Voorhees' reputation as an able musician.

Item XVI. The Crimson Staff requests that Eugene "Walter Winchell" Bagwell be made business manager for the Crimson next year.

Item XVII. Martha Madlem, Mary Ellen Dively, Carol Simmons, and Bette Blough leave their vacancies in the orchestra to Charlotte Myers, Lillian Schmidt, and Virginia Miller.

Item XVIII. Bette Yoder gives her sparkling personality and ability as an actress to Anna Ruth Culp.

Item XIX. Elizabeth Shoup leaves with Cynthia Davis, her ability to behave in class as well as outside.

Item XX. To Harold Raifsnnyder goes Harold Winters' football ability.

Item XXI. Vera Gonderman says that she is leaving Jim McConnell to no one. We hope she can hold her man.

Item XXII. Elnora Long leaves her ability to "rate" with Mr. Shanklin in care of Rosemary Sheridan.

Item XXIII. All the seniors not heretofore mentioned have agreed to bestow upon the students left in G. H. S. all their numerous qualities which would take days and days to relate.

Item XXIV. If there be any other properties which have been omitted in this official will, they are to be left to our faithful janitors, Charlie Burkett and Roy Schoemaker.

To this aforesaid Will and Testament of the Class of 1936, we in witness thereof, do hereby set our hand and seal this twenty-eighth day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred Thirty-six.

Signed:

PHIL STUMP.

JUNIOR ADVICE

Patrick Henry once said, "Give me liberty or give me death". The seniors started using this quotation as a slogan during their first year in this great institution of learning containing boys and youthful co-eds. Little did they care for "book larning", for they knew that they would sooner or later have to graduate and go to work and see how the other half of the world lives.

I've found that graduation exercises are real torture and even worse than slow death by drinking unpasteurized milk or eating uneducated "spinach". You juniors must do something to keep from graduating! Joe Rensberger's graduation will be delayed without effort by Joe. There is only one honorable way and that is by getting pink slips (like Don Schnoebelen does). It just comes natural to him, but for those who are inexperienced I suggest that you have a game of "touch football" in the hall or else have a good "session" in front of Miss Smith's room. These actions, mixed well with a few pink slips, should (and will) keep you from graduating.

You are sure to have a good basketball team if Warstler, Sample, and Chiddister are replaced by "Peanuts" Yoder, Russ Landers, and Eugene Bagwell. All three are well known throughout this state and their reputations alone will frighten many Jack Armstrongs until they will have a nervous breakdown. Mr. Shanklin, the junior sponsor, is working too hard teaching school, so he has applied for a position as the boss of one of the C. W. A. gangs here in Goshen. What is this faculty coming to?

After hearing this advice you will probably want to give me liberty or death. "I hope it is liberty plus graduation".

Good-day, everyone,

JIM PHEND.

VALEDICTORY

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We, the class of '36, entered G. H. S. four years ago with the ambition to graduate from this school. At that particular time, this was the most momentous and gigantic task we had ever undertaken. However, with a confidence born of necessity to face the task, we were able, after four years of hard work and with the assistance of our teachers, to overcome this great obstacle.

At the completion of this task, we have the feeling of self-satisfaction that engulfs one when he has completed such a huge undertaking. The world seems brighter, the flowers fairer and we feel that life is really worth living.

However, we realize that now we are confronted with a much larger task, that of living the lives of useful citizens. It is not possible for all of us to make further preparation for our life's work. Some few of us will and they will become the professional men and women of the future. Others who may not have the opportunity to continue their school work will receive much help from their high school course.

From the record of its past achievements and accomplishments, it is apparent that the majority of this class will lead useful and helpful lives in whatever occupation they engage.

We realize only too well that we cannot continue forever at G. H. S., but that we must go out in the world to seek higher goals. It is with this in mind that we say "goodbye" to G. H. S., with its many fond memories and recollections.

WILLIAM BULLOCK.
